Dedication

We, the Class of 1962, dedicate this El Ore to the Varsity Football Team and their Coaches who brought to Folsom our first Golden Empire League Championship. What this has done for our school spirit is immeasurable. For this, we thank you.

The Class of 1962

James S. Loughridge

Principal

The students and teachers of today are striving during an inspiring era. Students' aspirations are steadily increasing to an ever higher level, placing greater demands upon all of us.

Our new buildings with their expanded facilities are enabling you, in co-operation with your teachers, to progress steadily toward your immediate and more distant goals.

I wish the graduating seniors much success, but I also recognize that those who will achieve will be those who have earned success.

Frank Lopes, Jr.

Vice Principal

The search for quality in education is being carried on all over America. Some of you have been exposed to some experimental methods used in this quest. The results of this work as evidenced by your reactions has made a valuable contribution to educational studies. We thank you for this and hope that you have gained new insights and knowledge as a result of this improved instruction.

My best wishes go with you as you embark down the road to a useful and beneficial adult life.

"The meeting will now come to order" was a much heard phrase as members of the Folsom Senior High School Student Council met to discuss school business. Each member had the chance to show his ability as a leader and everyone worked for a common goal--to make FSHS a better school for all its students.

Senior Class Will

1. Sue Alexander, being a physical wreck, do hereby will my gym blouse with the red rick-rack on the collar to any sophomore who wants to be different.
1. Mary Baker, being of conditioned mind and sore muscles, do hereby bequeath to Nancy Gillard, Mr. Adams.
1. Bonnie Brookbush, being of unsound mind, will my seat at "Lucky's" to Lynn Garey with the hope that she will be able to fill it as well as I did.
1. Craig Burnett, being of unsound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get through physics to any junior who takes it.
1. Ann Burns, bequeath, to future seniors at Folsom my deepest regards for education and all that it has brought to me.
1. David Camberg, being of sound body and mind, will all the good times I have had at Folsom to future students.
1. Susan Arlene Cameron, being of sound mind and body, will to Pixie Mullen the patience and persistence it takes to be as good a senior as those of '62.
1. John Carney, being of sound body and questionable mind do will Cubby's half empty proaide bottle to any junior girl who thinks she's a natural.
1. Jack Carpenter, will to Bette Allen my ability to drop test tubes in chemistry without breaking them.
1. Jud. Carpa, will my personality to Tom Outland--now, Tom, you've got one.
1. Marti Caughell, being of unsound mind, will the holes in my shoes to my sole heirs, Bob Townsend and Dale Runquist.
1. John Christensen, will to Jim Prichard his own gym shoes and to Norm Koshimizu his own gym shorts.
1. Judy Clary, being of sound mind and physically unfit body, will to Pixie Mullen, Miss Favaroo.
1. Phyllis Cook, being the proud possessor of a warped mind, will to Shirley Burnett and Harriet Patton my ability to charm service station attendants.
1. Carol Cooper, will "Andy" Bar one penny a week for the next year.
1. Duane Crowley, being of sound mind and body do will my cold showers in gym to Don Huey who needs them more than I do.
1. Bob Curi, will to Sheryl Alston my typewriter in Mr. Jackson's class.
1. Darryl Dutwyler, do hereby will two broken poles to any deserving short polevaulter and to the GAA, Block "F" Society's recipe for cookies.
1. Danny Dauenhauer, being of sound mind will my ability to understand Spanish to all who are taking Spanish IV next year.
1. Sandi Davis, being of sound mind, will all of my school spirit to Cheryl Vest, since I know she needs it.
1. Fred D'Amuth, will my charming personality and my address book to a shy sophomore boy.
1. Lois Duwell, hereby will to my sister my desk and I also will to Mr. Adams a little humor.
1. Carol Duffy, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Mary Lee Roads all the fun and thrills of Miss Mattens gym class. I also leave to all juniors the happy and sad times that comes with your senior year.
1. Harriet Eastus, do hereby will my great love of Texas and its millionaires to Jerry McClurg as I no longer need them.
1. Janet Eatabrook, will my vacancy in Mr. Adams room to all my climbing friends.
1. Shirley Eatep, being of doubtful condition, will to my worthy (snack) bar buddy, Nancy Jacob, the exciting fun-filled life of the snack-bar manager.
1. Madeline Elbridge, will my ability to drop my baton during the easiest routines to the majorettes of '63.
1. Eleanor Frank, will my spastic, uncoordinated songleading ability, eight sets of dog-eared pom poms, and four slightly used uniforms to any girl who is elected to be a songleader.
1. Bill Freese, being of unsound mind, hereby will all my empty T-Bird bottles to Jackie Collman, and my old frat slopes to Richard Mathison.
1. Carole "Cano" Fritsche, being of sound mind do will my "second home" to any poor songleader who may need it.
1. Rae Marie Fuller, will my ability to frame be in shorthand to any underclassman who takes shorthand.
1. Frank Haynes, will my prolis vocabulary to those sophomores coming up next year who have not had the profound experience of visiting our P.E. class.
1. Maureen Hays, will my "DUH" expression to Trunk Van Sickle who will need it next year to be a cool senior.
1. Leonard Hill, do hereby bequest the vast number of "kasey points" that I have accumulated over the years to the junior class in hopes that they will use them wisely.
1. Bonnie Hugden, will my marvelous ability to play tennis to Susan Eddy and Johnny Shien.
1. Larry Hodge, will to Mr. Pottenger any old, used drum major's uniforms that I find running loose. I had none.
1. Judy Garey, being the mixed-up person I am, will, to the junior girls all my old boyfriends--good luck, girls!
1. Karen Gilbert, being of sound mind, will the twist to Coach Le Page in hopes that he learns to use the "twist" with rhythm.
1. Larry Griffith, being of sound mind, will my gym socks to Coach Le Page and Coach Guerra.
1. Larry Grimes, being of sound body and depleted mind do will Folsom Senior High School's Constitution to the juniors and the new parliamentarians.
1. Kim Gindler, being of dark brown hair and sound body, hereby will my weird whistle to any future junior or senior who cannot be heard above the Class of '62.
1. Diane Johnson, being of sound mind and body do hereby will my pen, pencils and the mimeograph machine to next year's student body secretary.
1. Susan Kinney, hereby will my fun-filled trip to San Francisco to Mary Peart.

1. Pat Koziol, will all my pennies to Rita Stone and Phil Hayes for their piggy bank.
1. Linda LaMance, will to the next senior classes my vacancy in the senior class in hope that they will enjoy it as much as I do.
1. Eva Lane, will to Linda Steele one wonderful senior year. I hope her last year at Folsom will be as enjoyable as mine.
1. Dave Leard, will my athletic ability to Dave Frazier so that he can serve "twisting" Larry Jennings well.
1. Jack Loomis, being of questionable quality, do not will anything to anybody because they say you can't take it with you--but I'm going to try.
1. Anne MacDonald, a departing senior, will my naturally blonde hair to Shirley Kitts who wishes hers was.
1. Lynn Manseau, will to Miss Lynch a complete set of the World Book Encyclopedia written entirely in shorthand.
1. Lee Martin, being perfectly physically fit, do will my talent as a penny flipper to any junior.
1. Martha Maskall, hereby will Mr. Collins to any morose sophomore or junior who happens to need a cheery first period teacher.
1. Carol McKinley, being of sound mind (sometimes) will myself to the colleges and to the colleges best of luck--they'll need it!
1. Patricia Ann McMurtry, being of sane mind and body do hereby will to Helen Eastus my broken baton which she broke and the hope that she never twirls again unless she learns how.
1. Peggy McMurtry, being of sound mind, will nothing to nobody because I squandered all my worldly possessions on myself. Too Bad!
1. Jody Meams, being of sound mind and physically fit body (supposedly), do hereby bequeath my beloved Bulldog head to anyone who will accept it.
1. Jill Mero, will my position as president of Girls' Block "F" Society to any deserving girl who is willing to fight for it.
1. Cecile Moore, being of warped mind but physically fit body, will my stripes to next year's Girls' Block "F" Society hoping they won't have as much trouble with Boys' Block "F" as I did.
1. Suzie Moore, being completely unphysically fit and totally insane, will to Trunk Van Sickle the front seat in Mr. Adams's civics class, in hopes that she will learn his secret of success.
1. Mary Jane Munoz, being of sound mind (ha-ha!), will part of my broken jaw bone to Carol Luntrom who needs something to keep her in the accident rate.
1. Faye Myers, being of doubtful mind will to Mike Crites the Bella Vista girls and to Bob Townsend a birthday cake with one candle.
1. Cheri Nieman, hereby will all my happiness and luck to all engaged senior girls in the class of '63.
1. Cheryl Noughton, leave my inability to attain physical fitness in Miss Mattens's gym class to Jerry McClurg with my best wishes for a normal life after trying to become physically fit.
1. Ed Parsons, will to all sophomores and juniors the task of trying to equal the athletic accomplishments of the Class of '62.

- Karen Pedersen, do will three things. To a junior who wants some expert help on music for parties, my brother, Tedd To Suzanne, my mail which I acquired on becoming "relief" editor of this book. And to a junior who needs inspiration, Mr. Grimes
- Jim Pritchard, being of sound mind and body will to Maurice Emley his gym shorts
- Gary Proctor, being a physical flop, will my moth eaten, lice ridden, full length, passionate purple, ballerina tights to Mr. Jennings
- Raymond Puckett, being of sound mind and adequate body will my natural athletic ability to Virgil Carter
- Craig Raymond, being of clean mind and body, do hereby bequeath Gaa, teachers who give B's and U's, and my book of derogatory cheers to my poor successor on the hope that he will properly dispose of them all
- Diane Ready, being of sound mind, will to Sue Stephens my civics and the right to get along with Mr. Adams
- LeRoy Redman, being of sound mind hereby will my maggot-ridden senior problems book to Virgil Carter
- Toni Reed, being of sound body but completely insane will to Sherry Coughell my nose, with the hope that together with her she'll be able to come up with something
- Judy Roberts, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to drive a car "or truck" to Gloria Selvidge
- Gail Russell, being of sound mind and body, will to Kevin McKinley, John Ever, Carol Silva and Joanne Pierce seat on the bus
- Judy Schilling, being of sound mind, do hereby bequeath my ability to find time for everything to the Class of '62
- Bill Schneckoeth, being and only being, will my ability to run "okies" to all of next year's varsity football players
- Diane Seiser, do hereby will the hair on my head to any junior girl who needs it
- Sandra Sharp, being more physically inclined than mentally sharp, do hereby will all the luck in the world to the P.E. assistants next year--they'll need it to keep from being thrown in the showers
- Al Smith, will to all sophomores and juniors the memory of the best senior class Folsom High has ever had
- Linda Smith, do hereby will my lover boy (John) to any junior girl that needs loving
- Ken Stille, existing only as a fragment of the imagination, will to Virgil Carter my ability to stare at cute girls without laughing
- Janice Stults, will humanity to the Junior Class, as they are with
- Lester Thomas, being of warped mind and physically fit body, will all the good times on Charlie Atlas day to all the upcoming seniors
- Carole Threkeld, will my ball for broken lab equipment to Pam Burnett
- Bill Townsend, being of unsound body and insane mind, will my yellow P.E. sweatshirt which has served me faithfully and has not been washed since the beginning of my senior year, to any junior who can get it over his head without holding his breath
- Richard Traux, being of clean mind, bequeath my stinking gym locker to anyone with a strong stomach
- Douglas Turner, being of sound mind and body, will my auto shop brautiforms to John Lowery
- Charlotte Vance, being of sound mind and physically fit body, will all the work of the Yearbook to Suzanne Bances
- Pat Wagner, do will my ability to get along with Miss Favaron to Thela Vance
- Ken Wagener, being of sound mind, will my square foot of Utopia in the gym locker room to any junior with wet foot and a can-line physique
- Larry Waite, will all my old newspapers to Doctor Wallace
- Martha "Jeannie" Webb, being of sound mind and body, will to next year's Public Relations Commissioner all the nugging that has been directed to me by various athletes
- Donna Weddle, being of a slipping mind, will my slide rule to any junior who takes physics next year
- Steve West, do will the time, tears, and happiness of my years at Folsom to those fortunate future students
- Bill "Guillotine" Williams, will all the fun I have had in French to future French students with the hope that they get better grades than I did
- Louisa Wolfe, being of sound body and mind, will the juniors the most fabulous last year
- The Class of 1962, do hereby will to the Class of 1963 the Senior Bench and all the privileges of being a Senior (collective June 9, 1962)

Concluding a fabulous senior year, we, the Class of 1962, recall our memorable four years of high school. On September 2, 1958 we began our freshman year. We sponsored "Oriental April," the annual Frosh Dance.

In our stupendous sophomore year we sponsored the Homecoming Dance and prepared for our big junior year.

The highlights of our terrific junior year included our Junior Prom, "Cloud Nine," and our Junior-Senior Luau.

In our senior year we celebrated in the grand 'ole style by sponsoring the Senior Ball, Senior Teach Day, Skip Day, Senior Homecoming Float, the Talent Show, the Homecoming Dance, and our Baccalaureate.

On June 8, 1962, we graduated, our diplomas a reality at last!

This year the Class of Sixty-three, as Juniors, sponsored many successful activities which were financed by hard work in concession stands.

At homecoming, the Juniors, under the leadership of Connie Staal, won the float competition with their winking Bulldog who seemed to be sure of the theme "Victory."

The Junior Prom, "Moonlight Mist," was held in November and the theme was carried out in white, silver, and shades of blue. Bette Allen and Alan Henderson reigned as queen and king of the dance.

The class advisors, Mr. Wilkinson, Miss Roach, Mrs. Maskall, Miss Favaron, Mr. Williams, and Mr. Anderson, were always there to help and give greatly appreciated advice.

In the spring the Juniors honored the Seniors with a fabulous Jr.-Sr. Banquet. As this year draws to a close, the Class of Sixty-Three is anticipating an equally successful year as seniors.

Go team--to Victory!!

We, the class of '64, under the leadership of Lynn Datwyler, have had a lot of fun our first year at Folsom High.

We have enjoyed competing with the Seniors and Juniors for the Spirit Jug and, also, for the best Homecoming float. Our float was titled "Can the Cougars "

Our two big successes of the year were our dance and assembly.

Helping to make our Sophomore year such a success were our willing advisors: Mr. Warner, Mr. Pumphrey, Mrs. Rumsey, Miss Chin, Dr. Wallace, Mr. Jensen, and Dr. Doran.

'61

Homecoming '61 was the climax of our outstanding football season. The pep rally, "This is Your Life, Coach Guerra" honored our varsity coach for his fine work here.

A horn-honking parade of cars through Rancho Cordova and Folsom preceded the J.V. game. The Bullpups defeated the Cubs 27-13.

Between games a parade of class floats circled the track and at halftime the junior float was declared best.

The sophomore princess, Cappie Gshwandtner was escorted by Lynn Datwyler; junior Charyle Anderson by Alan Henderson; senior Sue Cameron by Gary Gshwandtner. Bob Miles, John Carney, and Bill Schneckloth escorted the queen candidates Jody Means, Linda Smith, and Sandi Davis. Mike Stefanko, team captain, crowned Linda Smith queen and the band gave a salute to the alumni.

The Bulldogs downed the El Dorado Cougars 26-13. The victory was celebrated at the dance, "Football Finale," sponsored by the senior class.

MIRA LOMA:

Folsom's football team opened at home against the Mira Loma Matadors and blasted the Matadors out of the arena 26-12.

GRANT UNION:

Folsom's only loss; to the team that would tie for the Metropolitan League Championship. Folsom set up a terrific fight and played a better game than the score indicates, 20-6.

BELLA VISTA:

Folsom rebounded and lambasted the Broncos 27-13. Folsom was beginning the road of seven straight victories

LA SIERRA:

This was the game! The most exciting, toughest and the game that made Folsom a team. Folsom's tally came on a 65 yard pass to Stefanko from Hagan. LaSierra 6, Folsom 7.

MARSHALL:

Folsom opened the league season by disposing of the '60 Golden Empire Champs, 26-14.

VACAVILLE

The cold weather didn't cool off the "red hot" Bulldogs of Folsom as they chewed up Vacaville 27-7.

ARMIJO:

The champions game! Folsom sent the vaunted "Indians" of Armijo hastily scurrying to the reservation 21-13. Although the score was close the "Injuns" didn't have a chance, as the Bulldogs dominated the game.

ELK GROVE:

The Bulldogs exploded for 40 points for their biggest output of the year. The evening was highlighted by Al Henderson roaring 94 yards for the touchdown.

EL DORADO.

Folsom scored a two-fold purpose by beating El Dorado, 26-13 and winning their first Varsity title and winning their first homecoming game.

Coach Larry Jennings took the G.E.I. Champions to the 1962 Kendall-Arnett Tournament. Folsom began tournament competition against a fired-up Willows team, only to be downed 45-32. Friday, in the consolation round, the Bulldogs came out on top of a hard-fought contest with Placer 62-58. On the final night, Folsom handed the the Nevada Union Miners a 58-39 loss, to win the Consolation Trophy. The El Dorado Cougars won the tournament by crawling past San Juan 46-39. Vickie Steinman was the tournament princess and she was escorted by Steve Hagan, team captain. Virgil Carter made the all-tourney team and received a trophy for tournament high-point man. The Bulldogs fought hard and brought home another trophy to a high school which is very proud of them!

W-L, TOO, GROWS WITH THE CHALLENGE OF OUR CHANGING WORLD

Graduation is a time of great achievement, the culmination of 12 years of academic study. It means your emergence as young men and women, ready to take your new place in an ever-changing world . . . as a wage-earner, homemaker or student of higher education. Whatever your future, W-L wishes you success. W-L, too, is taking a new place in this growing metropolitan area, bringing the goods and services of "Sacramento's Finest Department Store" to a bright new store at the corner of Watt Avenue and El Camino. We hope this new store will become as important a part of your life as has been the familiar store at 12th and K to three generations of Sacramentans.

FOLSOM SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

FOLSOM • CALIFORNIA

As the school year draws to a close,
I wish to thank everyone who in any small way helped to make this year possible.

To the yearbook staff, you were all wonderful. To Mr. Walker, thank you. To you, you were a terrific business manager and have my deepest thanks and gratitude.

To the staff at the Bill Smith Studio and Dick Smith of the American Yearbook Company for my grateful thanks for your help and guidance.

To my mom and Dad give all my love for without their help this book could never have been possible.

To the students and faculty of Folsom
Senior High School —

I think you down in bottom of my heart.

Sharon Steiger
Editor, 1961-62

In Memorium of

Jack Loomis

October 20, 1943 - May 18, 1962

We may never question life until it is gone. We may never question the presence of another among us until he is gone. Must man always lose something of value in order to understand its meaning?

We say, "He was one of us." But he was more than just one of us, as each is more than just one. For is not the spark as hot as the flame? And is not the flake as cold as the snow?

We mourn for him, and say that he was not given a chance to live. But can we not envy him, for has he not found the answer that we seek?

— KENNETH STILLEY.
